

"In-Class" Writing Exercise: The STAR Method

Course: Engineering Technical Communications (Section 4)

Criteria	Complete	Partially Complete	Incomplete	Criterion Score
Completeness	0.5 points Assignment contains at least one, full, grammatically complete sentence for each of the four categories	0.25 points Assignment contains three but not four instances of at least one, full, grammatically complete sentence for each of the four categories	0 points Assignment does not contain at least one, full, grammatically complete sentence for each of the four categories	/ 0.5
Engagement	0.5 points Student has identified, to the best of your knowledge, a real situation from their life in which they demonstrated exceptional problem-solving skills. Student appears to be aware of the meaning of the STAR method categories, and is working through them in good faith.	0.25 points Student has identified, to the best of your knowledge, a real situation from their life in which they demonstrated exceptional problem-solving skills. Student does not appear to be aware of the meaning of the STAR method categories, and is working through them lazily or inappropriately.	0 points Student does not identify a real situation from their life in which they demonstrated exceptional problem-solving skills.	/ 0.5

Total

/ 1

Overall Score

Complete

0.75 points minimum

Partially Complete

0.25 points minimum

Incomplete

0 points minimum